Dan Lawrie Insurance Brokers Celebrates 35 Years

- For 35 years, Dan Lawrie Insurance Brokers has been creating a legacy of quality, service and customer satisfaction -

Hamilton, Ontario (October 2, 2017)

Dan Lawrie Insurance Brokers (DLIB), ranked in the top 5% of independent insurance brokerages in Canada, is proudly celebrating its 35th anniversary. On June 1, 1982, DLIB officially became an independent general insurance operation with five staff members providing personal and commercial insurance services.

“We started from humble beginnings,” said CEO Dan Lawrie, “35 years later we are proud to have over 95 employees and have strong relationships with our clients and community. I’m proud of how far we have come. The hard work and dedication of our employees and their continued commitment to customer service has helped us achieve the success we have today.”

The company’s 35 years of growth is a testament to its commitment to service excellence. Today, over 10,000 individuals, families and companies depend on the services and expertise that DLIB provides. Its success continues to be built on the people at DLIB and the relationships of trust built with clients and the community as a whole.

DLIB is proud to be involved in the communities where it does business, and actively participates in many local organizations including: Big Brothers Big Sisters of Hamilton & Burlington, United Way, Crime Stoppers, Chambers of Commerce, City Kidz, and more.

As a top ranked Canadian insurance brokerage, DLIB specializes in all areas of personal and corporate property/casualty insurance, employee benefits, financial services and group retirement products. DLIB sets the industry standard in insurance.
